GETTING AFTER THE BOSS.

To the voters of the 8th Congressional District of Kentucky and more especially my old comrade soldiers:

Some time in May I promised you a full history of George M. Davison and his political mouth-pieces of Rockeastle county. Before I begin, I wish to say in order to get at this in the proper manner, that I am bound to use the name of L. L. farrett. I want it distinctly understood that I shall not use it with any disrespect to him, but to expose the political corruption of Davison and his advisers in Rockeastle.

Mr. L. L. Jarrett, E. E. Protheroe,

Mrs. Mattie Carter and myself were applicants for the postoffice at Brodhead. The republican vote of Brodhead in McKinnley's election was 155. Out of that number I had on my peut 313 a m tion 63 republican voters, all of whom 12 04 p m received their mail at this place, save four or five, and they voted there. Taking 63 from 155 leaves 92 votes, to be divided between the three other applicants, giving them 30 and a fraction each. My majority over all is 32 and a fraction. I also had a lady's petition with about 30 names; a G. A. R. petition from H. H. Scovill, Post No. 52, London, and was endorsed by our county Post at Mt. Vernon. In the face of Note-Nos, 5 and 6 do not run Sundays, 9 and 10 all this, the pleadings of the governor of the State recommendation of the State, recommendations from two representatives in the Legislature, recommendations from A. R. Dyke, editor of the Mountain Echo, from Judge Vincent Boreing, of London. and from D. P. Bethurum, which I will explain later on, Mr. Davison disregarded a majority of his party and claimed he had done all in his power for the benefit of the party, when he had done all in his power for his and others, for their own political purpose. He also rejects the republican platform, for it plainly says the old soldier shall have the preference in the matter of employment, and now he comes out and says it was no slap at the old soldier when he appoints a soldier's son. Why not the grand-son as well ? Neither has any connection with the words used in the platform at St. Louis.

The whole truth is, Mr. Davison is a political trickster and it was for his and D. P. Bethurum's special benefit he did so, believing the whole matter was hidden in a manner by his political ring, that it was impossible for it ever to be seen. I will say some one besides my friend has studied as far as the fifth reader and has a good knowl. H. Taylor, were in Danville. edge of political rascality.

I will state here that the sensible, thinking republican will not stand any such schemes as you propose to play on him. It will do for the present but it wont do on the 1st Tuesday in November, 1897. You have made a mistake and in 1898, you will be able to see more clearly your mistake, Davison, and ask that the rocks and hills may fall on you and hide you from this political world of polution.

You have taken the advantage of the power vested in you and his the old soldier and the republican platform and gave both a slap in the face, which you can never recall.

So, comrades, see who you cast your rote for in 1897 and in 1898. I have tried to give you the full details in this matter, so we as a body of old comrades may look back more clearly be fore we leap.

Mr. Davison also said the protests of the best citizens of Brodhead would amount to nothing: that a protest of some of the best ladies of this place would amount to nothing and that he was for the party, regardless of all protests, or in other words, "I don't care who sinks so I swim," and furthermore he was after men who could command the greatest number of votes.

Mr. Davison has also turned a deaf ear on our county chairman, B. J. Be-Pension & Claim Agent, thurum. He told me on four or five different occasions he had seen Mr. Davison in my behalf and it was all in my favor. Later on he tells me he had sent a protest to Mr. Davison against Mr. Jarrett's appointment and in my behalf. This is where the dark and dirty work was done. The whole scheme is a political lie for a political purpose, which will come out soon and separate and apart from this article.

Mr. Davison seems to think that no man can get an office in this country, either for governor or county, unless he is on the Bethurum band-wagon. I am proud to tell you that the band-wagon is undergoing a wreck at present. One wheel is smashed, one horse dead, the driver is on a drunk-the whole thing will go to the devil in November and Davison and Bethurum will be to D. K. TOTTEN. blame.

Mr. S. Matthews, the night operator here, is off on a two-week's vacation. His job here is being looked after by Mr. Hal Vandivier.

After a series of misfortunes and accidents, Mr. Will McAlister is out again. He is ready to swear that a hammock is a source of more danger than a folding bed.

Moreland continues on the eve of prosperity and if all reports are true, she will soon be supplied with a firstclass hotel and sample room, as a Mr Cohn is comtemplating the erection of a $12,000 house, containing all modern improvements, etc.

George Gooch, who has been doing extra work as operator for the C. S., has been given a position as agent for the company at Brannon. He is a very deserving young man and his promotion was no doubt made upon his good merits and sterling worth.

Corn is selling at $2.25 and is reported as quite a scarce article in this locality. Good hay is also very much in demand at $12 to $14.
